REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE IN THE CASE OF U. A. FOSTER.

We, the Select Committee, to whom was referred the case of U. A. Foster, after hearing all the evidence, examining all the papers submitted, and listening to the arguments of counsel,

Do here find, That U. A. Foster handled the benevolent funds intrusted to him, and kept the accounts of the same, without that care and diligence which the obligation demanded, and we find that the specification of misuse or self-appropriation of such funds is sustained; but the evidence does not satisfy us that he intended to embezzle the funds intrusted to him.

We, therefore, recommend that he be admonished and reproved by the presiding Bishop.

COMMITTEE ON BOOK CONCERN.

Your committee on Book Concern accounts have conferred with the representative, and make the following report:

We commend the course of many of the brethren in meeting their accounts within the liberal credit extended. Nevertheless, it is noted that a considerable number allow balances to remain unpaid. Your committee would most earnestly recommend the observance of the rules of credit, which require payment within the year ending at the meeting of the Annual Conference. That, in view of the liberal dividends made by the concern for benefit of Conference Claimants, it is our duty to give hearty co-operation with the Agents in securing debts, thereby saving loss to this sacred fund for the worthy claimants of the Conference.

CLASS MEETINGS AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

If Methodism is to continue its power and evangelical spirit, it must continue to be a testifying church; we would therefore urge the pastors of the North Indiana Conference to seek an increased attendance upon this historic means of grace.

We believe the superintendents of Junior League chapters are doing much to enlarge the strength and loyalty of future Methodism. We think that to insure sub-pastoral oversight, and cultivate the Class Meeting spirit among our young people, our pastors may often appoint the First Vice-President of the Epworth League a class leader of the church. We commend the Epworth Herald, our bright, sprightly, young people's paper, and we endorse the Reading Course and recommend its use by our young people.

The Volunteer movement we believe to be very helpful in stimulating interest in and contributions for missions. We are highly pleased with the plan of uniform topics for the Epworth League, Christian Endeavor Society, and Baptist Young People's Union.

We hail with delight the near approach of the International Epworth League Conference, and the fact that our capital city, Indianapolis, is the place of such meeting. We would recommend to all our pastors to influence our young people to attend, as far as possible, this great meeting, so that there may accrue the largest possible benefit to the chapters throughout our Conference. We would also suggest that, in all our chapters, the approaching Anniversary Day be observed, commemorating the organization of the Epworth League, which in this decade of history has wrought such marvelous results.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the Church at large on the remarkable success of this work, through a period of thirty-two years.

2nd, That our country, being new with rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions, will continue to need Church Extension in the future as in the past, and that our Church, by fostering and strengthening this work, will increase its own power to do the larger work now thrown upon it.

3rd, That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee for our proper share in Church Extension until everywhere, in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity "to enter His courts with praise."

4th, That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion, with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several districts and pastoral charges for collection; and that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, and, especially, Christianity in Earnest and Glad Tidings, we will present this cause in all our churches, and endeavor to secure at least the amount asked in accordance with the plan of the Discipline.

5th, The part our Conference is to take, in giving and receiving, is definitely fixed, under provision of the Discipline, by the General Committee from year to year. For the ensuing year, our Conference is asked to raise, by collections, $5,000.00. Our needy churches may receive, on approved applications, $800.00.

The amount of aid granted must depend on the amount of collections taken, and cannot exceed the proportion indicated. Interest, therefore, in our own Conference as well as in the general cause, should inspire us to use all diligence to secure the full amount asked, and, if possible, go beyond it.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY.

DePauw University is approaching the close of another successful year's work. The student enrollment will be quite up to last year, except the number lost by suspending the Theological School. There will be about seventy young men and women graduating from the College of Liberal Arts this year. The enrollment in all the departments will be between 650 and 700. We have faculties in the several schools superior in every respect, and the student body has been fully up in class work, enthusiasm and college loyalty. Every Methodist in Indiana should have a peculiar pride in this great school, because of its almost unequaled history in the number of conversions among its students, the number of equipped men and women sent forth to all the walks of life, and especially the number it has given to leadership in church and state, at home and abroad.

DePauw University is peculiarly a Methodist school, having 72 per cent. of the young people in the College of Liberal Arts from Methodist homes, and 83 per cent. in the Academy; and fully 10 per cent. of all these young people are Methodist ministers' children. One-fourth of all the ministers in the active ranks in the Methodist Church in Indiana have been trained, more or less, in DePauw University, and scores of ministers in other churches.

DePauw University is Indiana Methodism's "West Point." It is, without doubt, therefore, the most important and solemn trust laid upon the church in Indiana; for we will go up or down, as a Church, on the ratio of attendance, spirituality and equipment in this school. If we do not provide the best things for our children, our brightest and strongest will seek these things in other churches or at the hands of the State. To let our brightest young people be trained by other churches, and especially under secular influences, is to lose in church fervor, loyalty and leadership, and a large per cent. of our young people from our communion.

We are grateful to note the increasing interest in northern Indiana in our own DePauw University. We rejoice over the world-wide Methodist movement for a Twentieth Century gift to higher Christian education. We believe the necessity is laid upon us to rebuild, and build higher, the ramparts of DePauw University; and we will join most heartily in the Twentieth Century movement, to do our full share of providing, at least, $500,000, to be added to the permanent endowment of this great school. Surely, if Ohio can raise $1,000,000 for Wesleyan University, and New York $2,000,000 for Syracuse University, where they have a number of other Methodist schools, Indiana ought to raise more than half a million for Asbury DePauw University. As Indiana has one-fifteenth of world-wide Methodism, and occupies a strategic place in the National Union, and as we have a membership of 190,000 and a Methodist population of 635,000, it must be clear to every one of us that great opportunities and great responsibilities are laid upon us.

We see the Northwest Indiana Conference, at its last session, not only passed strong resolutions of loyalty and support to DePauw, but voted to raise $150,000 for the Twentieth Century gift, and appointed the presiding elders and a committee on education to submit plans and ways for this great movement.

The Indiana Conference, at its session last September, passed the same resolutions, voting to raise $200,000 within their bounds, appointing the presiding elders and a committee on education to co-operate with like bodies for this Twentieth Century Movement.

Realizing that soon we will have passed out of one of the most marvelous centuries in the history of the world, to enter upon larger opportunities and meet graver problems, and realizing, also, that we owe a duty of loyalty to our sister Conferences, our sister churches, our country and our own children, we, therefore, recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That the North Indiana Conference gives a hearty endorsement to the Twentieth Century Movement, and pledges it our support, and we will undertake to raise $200,000 for the permanent endowment of DePauw University, as a Twentieth Century gift. Without apportioning this sum, we recommend that the presiding elders and a number of laymen, hereafter to be named, shall constitute a committee, to meet like committees of the other two Conferences at as early a day as convenient, to definitely launch the Twentieth Century Movement in Indiana, and submit plans and methods of work to secure gifts from all our people in the State.

2nd, That an educational collection shall be taken every year, with the other benevolences, that shall average, at least, ten cents per member of our membership, to be given to the "Sustaining Fund" of DePauw University, in order to keep up the teaching force while the trustees are settling the DePauw estate and resetting properties and endowments, this collection to be reported on the open Conference floor.

3rd, That we concur with our sister Conferences and the State Convention, that the second Sunday in May shall be known, permanently, as "DePauw Day" in Indiana, and we will observe the day in appropriate exercises.

4th, We believe it is our duty to send our children to our own University, and we will use our influence among our young people to have them attend our own Christian schools; and we will make them acquainted with the advantages and privileges of DePauw.

5th, That the Conference appoint, from each district, a permanent committee, two men (laymen), two women, two ministers, the district president of the Epworth League, together with the presiding elder, as a Committee on Education; this committee to co-operate with like committees from the other two Conferences, in providing plans for the Twentieth Century Movement in the State, and also to execute the plans in our own Conference, in co-operation with our pastors.

6th, We believe DePauw University is entering a new life and a brighter future, but we believe the success of the Twentieth Century Movement for DePauw is largely with us, the pastors of the churches; therefore, we endorse the plan submitted by our Vice-Chancellor: 1, A thank-offering service, to help raise the $200,000; 2, A thank-offering gift of $50,000 from our 700 ministers in Indiana, to endow a chair in DePauw, hereafter to be named; and we assure our brethren of the other Conferences that we will give our full share of the $50,000.

We recommend that M. H. Mendenhall, M. V. Beiger and Hardin Roads be elected trustees of DePauw University, and T. M. Guild visitor for two years, from September 1st, 1899.

We recommend that E. E. Neal and W. H. Daniel be appointed visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute; L. A. Retts to Drew Theological School, and A. S. Preston to Boston Theological School.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This institution is located within the bounds of our own Conference. It is under the control of the National Association of Local Preachers of the M. E. Church, is Methodistic, thoroughly spiritual, has a devoted faculty, a commendable course of study, and, in its field, is doing a good and praiseworthy work. We commend it to the sympathy and favorable consideration of our people.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Inasmuch as the amount given this year by the Board of Education to needy students within the bounds of our Conference, exceeded the amount raised by the Conference, and acknowledging the beneficent aid given by this Board, we therefore urge that special attention be given this year to the "Children's Day" collection, and the full amount given to the Board of Education.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

As it is recommended by our discipline that young men expecting to enter the ministry should first take an academic college course, and then a thorough training in one of our theological schools, we recommend the following:

Boston Theological School.—Our oldest theological seminary, with its furnished rooms, in the center of this classic city, advantages of great libraries, able instructors, evangelistic spirit, cheap living, and training in the methods of modern missionary work.

Drew Theological Seminary, located at Madison, New Jersey, merits the high place it holds in the esteem of our church. In its location, its buildings, its library and its excellent faculty, it is a desirable school for the training of our ministry.

Garrett Biblical Institute.—We recognize the high grade and efficient work of this institution, ideally located in the great central West. With university library and laboratories and scholarly instructors, it takes rank among the first institutions in the land.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We, your Committee of Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, submit the following report:

Resolved, 1st, That we accept the apportionment of $3,500 for this Conference, and urge the presentation of and collection for this cause, by the pastors, in all our charges.

2nd, That we recommend the circulation of the Christian Educator, published by this Society, among our people. And,

WHEREAS, Many of our Conferences, East and West, have passed resolutions, pledging themselves to take a special collection during the ensuing Conference year to liquidate the debt on the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society; and,

WHEREAS, The burdensome debt on the Missionary Society has been canceled during the past year, and that this work was very largely accomplished by taking special collections therefor; and,

WHEREAS, Some of the special objects of the "Twentieth Century Fund" are to foster the work of education and the payment of debts; therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That we, as a Conference, agree to present to our charges the cause of Freedman's Aid and Southern Education, and take a special collection to be applied on the debt.

2nd, That we request the management of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society to make an equitable apportionment of the debt to the Presiding Elders' Districts in the United States, if this has not already been done, and that we agree to make a presentation and conscientious effort to raise our full apportionment.

H. A. DAVIS, President.
J. B. MCNARY, Secretary.

MISSIONARY CAUSE.

The Committee submit the following:

Resolved. (1) That we express our gratitude that the Missionary Debt is forever a thing of the past.

(2) That we recognize the good work done by the World Wide Mission in the homes of our people, and are glad to learn that the same plan of free distribution is to be continued for another year.

(3) That we approve of the efforts of our Presiding Elders to carry out the Disciplinary plan for Missionary work.

(4) That we believe it is the privilege and duty of our Church to make every effort possible to speedily give the Gospel to the people of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Phillipines.

(5) That we heartily commend the good work accomplished by the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, and that we will give them our heartiest support.

J. B. COOK, President.
J. D. CROAN, Secretary.

MORAL AND SOCIAL QUESTIONS.

Your Committee present the following for your consideration:

WHEREAS, Brigham H. Roberts, Congressman-elect from Utah, is an avowed polygamist, having at least three wives, and living with them in violation of law and solemn promises and the sense of morality; therefore,

Resolved, (1) That we will call upon the Representatives of our Congressional Districts to use every effort to have him expelled from the Fifty-sixth Congress.

(2) That a copy of this preamble and resolution be transmitted to those Congressmen having a constituency within the bounds of North Indiana Conference.

THE CHURCH AND THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

Believing that the spiritual uplift of the Church is first necessary before we dare hope for the large increase in our membership, and the gift of $20,000,000 for the endowment of our Universities, etc., as contemplated in the Twentieth Century program; therefore,

Resolved, That we will urge our members to a complete abandonment of all wordly amusements that cannot be indulged in in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and an unconditional consecration of soul and body to the service of God. Holiness to the Lord must be the bugle call of the pulpit.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

Whereas, A parsonage, comfortable and convenient, is a recognized necessity, steps should be taken, at once, to secure one in every charge. In circuits an eligible location, near the center of the charge, is very desirable. Good plans are indispensable. Provisions should be made for a study, a bath-room, and other well-known conveniences. The property should be kept in good repair, and well insured. Outbuildings should be so placed as not to mar the general appearance. The grounds should be laid out in walks and lawns, and planted with shade-trees. The preacher's family should take the utmost pride in keeping everything "decently, and in order." Therefore,

Resolved, (1) That the Presiding Elder be requested, at the First Quarterly Conference, to inquire into the condition of each parsonage, and to urge immediate action looking toward the erection of parsonages in those charges having no parsonage.

(2) That the Pastor and Committee on Parsonage and Furniture be urged to purchase a few articles of heavy furniture every year.

(3) That the Trustees be requested to provide means for beautifying the grounds, and preserving the same in good condition.

(4) That the Pastors are requested to make a written statement of the condition of parsonage affairs to the Committeeman of his own District, in order that an accurate and suggestive report can be made to our next Annual Conference.

SUSTENTATION.

We, your Committee on Sustentation, report as follows:

We recognize the fact of the great need of financial help for certain charges within the bounds of our own Conference, and we are highly gratified with the amounts raised this year.

We recommend that the sum of $1,500 be apportioned to the districts, by the Presiding Elders, for the coming year.

We recommend that the distribution of the amounts raised in each district be applied to the new and needy charges in the districts in which the respective amounts are raised, by a committee of three in each district, of which committee the Presiding Elder shall be a member and chairman.

Fred M. Stone, President.
J. F. Radcliffe, Secretary.

Presiding Elders: A. E. Mahin, C. U. Wade, M. S. Marble, C. G. Hudson, J. A. Lewellen, F. T. Simpson.

Hill amended (carried) that the Presiding Elders report the items of distribution in each district, and that they be published in the Minutes.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

We recognize in the Sunday-School one of the most important factors in religious and educational life, not only of our own age, but of the ages to come; since the Sunday-School teaches the Bible, and brings the gospel to vast multitudes in the respective periods of childhood. To this end, then, let great care be taken in selecting teachers who are intelligent, devoted and godly in their lives. Whenever practicable, let Normal classes be organized, that the greatest and best results may be had to this end.

We further recommend that our own Methodist literature be used in all our schools, and that Home Class Departments be organized wherever possible.

TRACTS.

Recognizing the evangelizing agency of the Tract system, because of its cheapness and ease of circulation, therefore, be it

Resolved, That as pastors we make a free use of Tracts in our work, and that we sanction and hereby recommend the raising of the full amount appropriated to our Conference this year.

TEMPERANCE.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has put herself on record as being unconditionally opposed to the legalized liquor traffic. Christian people have been praying for centuries that God would overthrow this "crime of crimes." We are beginning to realize that God is calling upon his followers to answer their own prayers, by uniting forces against this enemy to our homes. We recognize in the Anti-Saloon League, forces that mean death to the liquor traffic. It is omni-partisan and interdenominational, and is working for the utter extermination of the saloon business.

We therefore extend to the Indiana Anti-Saloon League our sympathy, and pledge to it our co-operation by opening our churches to the State workers and in organizing local leagues.

Whereas, There is need of more persistent effort, in every legitimate way, on the part of the friends of Temperance, in order that our people may be educated to do their whole duty;

Resolved, That, so far as practicable, we will make a special effort to have our congregations and Sunday-schools observe the 4th of July of each year as a day consecrated to the promotion of temperance reform; that we will especially seek to interest our children and young people in this movement; that, with songs, music, speeches, and various services in our churches, public halls or groves, we will strive to promote the proper and Christian celebration of the Birthday of the Nation in the cultivation of a sound temperance revival; and, finally, that we invite the co-operation of all religious bodies, temperance organizations, Young People's Societies of whatever name, and all churches, Sunday-schools, pastors, patriots and philanthropists, in this effort to save our nation from the curse of drink.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church has just celebrated its eighteenth anniversary. It is the youngest Missionary Society of our Church, but it is a "Child of Promise." It took for its motto, "America for Christ," and inscribed on her banners, "For the Love of Christ and in His Name," and went forward to conquest.

Its success has demonstrated the wisdom of those godly women who, looking out upon the "Fields white unto the harvest," and impelled by a desire that more might be accomplished, met in earnest prayer, and, believing that they were divinely guided, they effected the organization of our Woman's Home Missionary Society. After these years of labor, we are led to exclaim, "Behold, what hath God wrought!" To Him be the Glory.

Our Society has endeavored to provide avenues of service, and map out its work by the outline supplied by our Lord and Master, when he said: "For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat; thirsty, and ye gave me drink; a stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye clothed me; sick, and ye visited me; in prison, and ye came unto me."

Being built on this foundation, the practical working of our Society commends itself. Its aims and interests enlist the hearty co-operation of all.

The work is divided into twenty bureaus, each of which is under the care of a committee, with the counsel and sanction of the General Board.

At the recent annual meeting, in addition to other new work, plans were arranged to follow the "Stars and Stripes" with her benefactions into the needy fields.

In our own Conference, the work is constantly growing. It is encouraging to note that, each year since the organization, there has been an advance over the preceding year, both in membership and contributions.

This year we have added ten organizations, and many of the auxiliaries have increased their membership, quite a number being on the "Roll of honor." Kokomo is the Banner District for new organizations, Muncie for members, and Fort Wayne for contributions.

In addition to the regular work of our Society, our Conference has paid the salary of Miss Flora Mitchell, Missionary at Thayer's Home, Atlanta, Ga., and for scholarships in the following Homes: Bennett, Ritter, Jesse Lee and Oriental. Contributions have been sent to Mothers Jewels, York, Neb.; New Mexico, Asheville, N. C.; Marcy Home, Chicago; Rust Home, Ocean Grove;

Rust Hall, Washington, D. C., and to the emergency fund. Our Conference pledged toward the deficiency fund $25.00, and we paid $272.00.

One of our most important departments, and one that is rapidly growing, is the Deaconess' Work. We have twenty-nine Homes and Stations, and over two hundred Deaconesses regularly employed, with property valued at $216,000.

We are glad to know that there are plans being formulated for a Deaconess' Home and Hospital in our own State, and in its success we are all deeply interested. We shall expect it to not only touch directly with its benign hand of blessing, but we feel sure that from the Deaconess' Home will radiate influences which will be helpful to our work throughout the State, more fully enlisting the heartfelt interest in the kind of work our Society has, we believe, been providentially raised up to carry forward.

In closing up the work of the year, we have reason to be profoundly grateful to our Heavenly Father for His constant attending blessing, and by His help we intend to press forward with unfaltering step, inspired by our motto, "For the Love of Christ and in His Name."

Mrs. L. H. Bunyan,
Conference Corresponding Secretary,

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

Woman's work in the church is worthy of our profound consideration. Only as the Gospel prevails will woman have her divinely ordained place in the various relationships of life. Her many bright names that shine in all the dispensations of the Bible indicate something of the purpose of God concerning her part in the evangelization of the world. In the Church to-day, through the unfolding plans of God, new and ever-enlarging fields of Christian activity are open to consecrated womanhood. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That we believe the organized forms of Christian activity among the women of our Church, and which have received the authoritative sanction of our Church, are in harmony with the will of God.

2nd, That we will encourage in our pastoral charges, in every proper way, both in public and in private, the development and the highest usefulness of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary and of the Woman's Home Missionary Societies, where such exist, and where they do not exist will arrange for and welcome the visitation to our churches of any authorized representatives of either of these societies who may come with the view of organizing auxiliaries.

3rd, That an efficient Conference Deaconess' Board, consisting of nine members, at least three of whom shall be women, be appointed by the Conference at its present session, to carry out, as far as practicable, the provisions of the Discipline regarding the work of Deaconesses among us.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1st, That we hereby express our hearty appreciation of the hospitality and many marked expressions of kindness shown us by the pastor and members of this church, the other Protestant churches, and the Catholic church, of this city.

2nd, That our thanks are due and are hereby expressed to the banks of this city for special favors shown us, and to the Decatur Democrat and the Decatur Evening Journal, for the superior reports of the Conference proceedings which they have furnished.

3rd, That we hereby tender a special vote of thanks to the excellent choir of this church, and the North Indiana Conference Quartet, and the Ft. Wayne District Double Quartet, for the inspiring music furnished for this session of the Conference.

4th, That we record our appreciation of the kindness of the manager of the opera house, in tendering us its use for services on the Sabbath.

5th, That we recognize the kindness of the Central Passenger Association, in its concessions favorable to all attending the sessions of the Conference.

6th, That our worthy Secretaries and their assistants, and the Treasurer and his assistants, are entitled to special recognition for their faithful, painstaking and highly satisfactory labors.

7th, That the high executive ability, the genial, sympathetic and brotherly spirit, of our presiding officer, Bishop Andrews, have made a most favorable impression upon us. We pray that many years of effective service may be added to his eminently useful life.

8th, That we express our appreciation of the presence of our sweet-spirited Senior Bishop Bowman, who has, for so many years, been closely identified with our Indiana Methodism. We welcome him to our Conference and to our churches; may his evening-time of life continue to grow brighter.

Obituary.

MARGARET SHAW BREWINGTON.

Margaret Shaw Brewington was born February 17, 1836, and died April 2, 1898, aged sixty-two years, one month and twenty-five days. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when ten years of age. She was graduated from Brookville College in 1859, and followed the profession of teaching for a number of years afterwards, filling the principalship of different high schools. November 6, 1878, she was united in marriage with Rev. R. F. Brewington, A. M., and joyfully shared the life of the itinerancy with her husband until his health required him to rest from the active itinerant's life. In the charges where they served, her memory is precious. She was always a true helper; duty was a delight; cheerful and glad in spirit, her presence was always welcome. At the time of our brother's superannuation they took up their residence at Knightstown, Ind. Here they have many personal friends; no one could be more beloved, anywhere, than is our sister in Knightstown. Her beautiful Christian spirit, always patient, kind and social, won the love and esteem of all. Her home was full of cheer, making those glad who passed its threshold. She delighted in the company of young people, many of whom will not forget her wise counsel. The work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was a dear interest of her heart; she was a faithful laborer in this society for many years, having been president of the local society twice, and district president once. She was above the ordinary in intelligence, and joining with this her rare college training, fitted her beyond the average for efficiency in all the work of the church. Her long affliction of body hindered her in doing what she otherwise would have been able and glad to do. Whenever she was able, she was faithful in attendance upon all the services of the house of God, gladly taking part in its privileges. Her physical disabilities were heavy, but she bore up with heroic endurance and patient submission, never a murmur passing her lips. Her faith endured to the end; she triumphed over all and peacefully went home to God. The writer, who was her pastor for three years, has many pleasant memories of her inspiring Christian life. Her noble soul is now at rest, happy with the immortal. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. H. Guild, assisted by Rev. A. E. Mahin, Rev. E. F. Hasty, Rev. J. W. Lowry and others, and her body was interred at Moore's Hill.

The rareness of her consecrated life makes her memory more precious to those of us who knew her here. Peacefully rest, dear sister, and await our coming. L. A. Beeks.

CORNELIA CRANE BEEKS.

Cornelia Crane Beeks, wife of Rev. Greenbury C. Beeks, M. D., was born April 8, 1816, and died at the home of her son; William L. Beeks, Indianapolis, Ind., September 9, 1898, aged eighty-one years, six months and twenty-nine days. Her husband died October 23, 1878. She was married in the year 1834. She shared with her husband in his toils as an itinerant preacher. For a time his health failed, and he retired from the traveling connection. When his health had improved, and, loving the ministry, he again entered the regular work, where he continued until he entered the army during the rebellion. Sister Beeks was loyal to God and her family during all these trying changes, doing her part as a faithful wife, mother, and servant of God. There were born to her four sons, all of whom are still living: John T., in Florida; James C. and Edward A., in Chicago, Ill.; William L., in Indianapolis, Ind. Our sister was born in a Methodist home, and was trained at the family altar to love God, so that at the early age of nine years she gave her heart to God and united with the church. She always loved the church, and was pleased to hear tidings of its victories. Her last illness was mostly due to failures incident to her advanced years; no special disease being the cause of her death. For many months she was a great sufferer, and a subject of constant care. The grace of patience sustained her while she calmly waited the day of God's call to the Christian's reward. Among the appointments she, with her husband, received during their itinerant life, were New Albany, Centerville, Greencastle, Muncie, Fort Wayne District. Those of us who knew her, loved her, and rejoice that, after so long a life with us, she is now assigned to that rest that she so hopefully waited for. The funeral was preached at the residence of her son, William L., North Senate avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., by Rev. Charles N. Sims, a life-long friend of the family, assisted by Rev. Charles E. Bacon. Her body was interred at Brownsville, Ind., the home of her childhood. A good life is gone, to be happier in her heavenly home. Shall we not say?

"Believing, in the midst of our afflictions,
That death is a beginning, not an end;
We cry to them, and send
Farewells, that might better be called predictions;
Being foreshadowings of the future, thrown Into the vast unknown."

L. A. Beeks.

MRS. MARY E. NEWTON.

Mary E. Staley was born in Jefferson county, Ohio, October 15, 1823, and died in Windfall, Indiana, September 24, 1898. She was married to Daniel Revenaugh November 16, 1843; to them were born two children, one of whom still survives. Her husband died March 1, 1845. On February 13, 1851, she was married to Rev. R. A. Newton; this marriage was blessed with three children, only one of whom is living.

She was a great sufferer for the last two years of her life, which she endured with the great fortitude and patience of a true Christian. She was anxious to be released from her suffering, and often became very happy in anticipation of the approach of death. One of the happy events of her life was when her pastor called on her and held religious service. She gave sixty years of service to the church, which she loved with an intense devotion. When she took her place by the side of her husband, as the wife of a Methodist itinerant, she cheerfully shared with him the trials of the more than twenty-five years of his active ministerial life, and when age brought superannuation to them she did not fail to lean upon the arms of her Savior.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Windfall, September 25, 1898, conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. A. Graham, who preached the sermon from the text of her own choice, Matthew, 6-10: "Thy will be done."

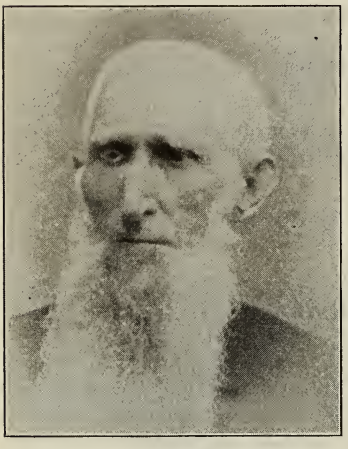
REV. JOHN MAFFITT.



John Maffitt was born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, December 25, 1813, and died in Bristol, Ind., December 11, 1898, aged eighty-four years, eleven months and sixteen days. His mother died when he was eighteen months old. Until the age of thirteen years he was cared for by an aunt and his grandmother.

At this early age he became an apprentice in a harness shop in Carlisle, Penn., remaining there for seven years. When he was twenty years of age he joined his brother in business in Delaware county, Ohio. It was here that he married Miss Emily Faust, April 30, 1834. After remaining twelve years in Ohio, they moved to Bristol, Ind. Here, again, he engaged in the harness business.

He was converted when eighteen years of age, and immediately joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he has ever since been a devoted member. He was licensed as a local preacher in Ohio, preaching in Troy, Piqua and other places.

After moving to Indiana, he decided to devote his life wholly to the ministry, and was admitted into the North Indiana Conference in 1853.

For eleven years he served with ability and diligence the following charges: St. Joseph, Benton, Orland, LaGrange, Middlebury, Ligonier, Hawpatch and Bristol. In 1864 he superannuated and located at Bristol, Ind., where he and his faithful wife resided until January 30, 1896, when she died.

To them were born four sons and four daughters. One son, two daughters and three grandchildren are all that remain of their immediate family.

Brother Maffitt was a genial Christian gentleman, as sunny a superannuate as one could desire to meet.

He was a thoroughly loyal citizen, expressing himself with such vigor during the war, that the memory of it caused him to be made an honorary member of the G. A. R. He was for sixteen years the Postmaster of Bristol.

He was a capable, honorable business man; a faithful and true neighbor; a devoted husband and kind father.

He was an heroic Christian. His last hours were hours of intense suffering. To the last his mind was clear, and upon his lips were the words, "Jesus saves."

Calling his children by name, he bade them farewell, and quietly slept his life away. "He rests from his labor, and his works do follow him."

Windfall, it is but natural that he should be honored, both by the Christian and non-Christian people, who felt that, in his death, they had lost a personal friend.

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church, in Windfall, by the Presiding Elder of Kokomo District, Rev. M. S. Marble, who was assisted by the pastors, Rev. T. A. Graham, Rev. W. W. Martin and Rev. David Wells. The body was accompanied to the grave by the Grand Army of the Republic, the Ladies' Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans.

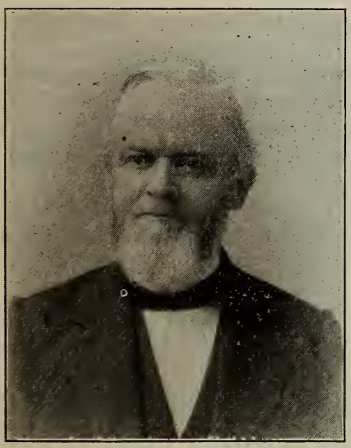
MARTIN ADDISON TEAGUE.



Martin Addison Teague, son of Joshua and Martha (Malogue) Teague, was born in the vicinity of Greensboro, North Carolina, on the 12th day of January, 1834. When he was about one year old, his parents moved to New Paris, Ohio, and later to Pendleton, Ind. His father died when he was about eight years old, and he was then thrown upon his own resources. He apprenticed himself to a merchant tailor to learn that business, meanwhile, studying at night to complete his education. When the term of his apprenticeship was ended, he taught a country school in the vicinity of Pendleton, and later embarked in the merchant tailoring business in that place.

At the age of about twenty-two or twenty-three he was converted during a revival service in the M. E. Church at Pendleton. Shortly afterwards he received a call to preach the gospel, and entered upon the study for the ministry. He was received on trial in 1859. He was ordained a Deacon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, April 7, 1861, by Bishop Janes, and his ordination as an Elder followed on the 12th of April, 1863, by Bishop T. A. Morris. He immediately entered upon the active work of a Methodist minister of the North Indiana Conference, in which he continued, with but slight interruptions, until the spring of 1888, when he retired from the active work, located in Pendleton, and engaged in the business of merchant tailoring, in which he continued up to the time of his death.

During the term of his ministry he served on the following charges, viz.: Jonesboro, Alexandria, New Corydon, Anderson Circuit, Muncie Circuit, Fortville, Winchester, Pendleton, Cambridge City, Greenfield, Selma, Pierceton, Decatur, Huntington and Hartford City. In the spring of 1888 he was admitted to a supernumerary relationship in the Conference, and was superannuated in 1894. He never lost his interest in church work, and, up to the time of his death, was a faithful, conscientious and earnest worker in the cause.

In 1860, on the 22d day of March, he was united in holy matrimony to Miss Margaret Faulkner, daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth Faulkner, of Jonesboro, Ind. Of this union three children were born, one of whom, Mrs. Tina K. Mann, of Decatur, Ind., survives him. Mrs. Margaret Teague, his wife, died on the 22d day of July, 1868, and was buried at Wheeling, Ind.

On the 7th day of April, 1870, the now deceased was married to Miss Hettie Anne Towell, eldest daughter of Samuel and Lyda Towell, at Huntington, Ind., by Rev. Wm. E. McCarty. There were born to them six children, boys, viz.: William Ferris, Merrill Arthur, Harry Goode, Owen Addison, Walter Dorwin, and one who died in infancy and is buried at Selma.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hettie A. Teague; his daughter, Mrs. Tina K. Mann, and his five sons.

About three years ago Rev. Teague suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. All that medical skill could do was done, but in vain, and he sank to rest quietly — peacefully as a babe falling to sleep in its mother's arms — at 2:57 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, January 22, 1899.

His funeral was conducted by Rev. E. F. Hasty, assisted by Rev. C. U. Wade and Rev. J. I. McCoy. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Pendleton.

Appointment Record.

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual, and brought down to 1889. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in this century. In some instances no record is made of service in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

H. N. HERRICK.
